
Lowell Mohler Assembly Hall

The Lowell Mohler Assembly Hall, built in 2003 and named after former Department of Agriculture Director and Missouri State Fair Commissioner Lowell Mohler, offers an updated and versatile open space ideal for parties, shows, wedding receptions, auctions, and more. For events needing additional room, the building includes two adjacent classrooms that provide extra flexibility. There also is ample parking, making it easy for guests to access and enjoy your event.

Building Features

Facility Description: Open-span exhibit hall

Electrical: 110v

Square Footage: 10,000

Length (ft): 110'

Width (ft): 95.5'

Restrooms: Yes

Air Conditioning: Yes

Heat: Yes

Overhead Doors: 15'

Seating Capacity: 700, banquet

Night Lighting: Yes

Floor Type: Concrete

Sound System: Yes

Other: Two adjacent classrooms (900-square-foot each); not included in Assembly Hall rental

Prices are subject to change without notice. For accessibility details, visit <https://mostatefairgrounds.com/plan-event/accessibility/>.

Lowell Mohler Assembly Hall

