

---

Poultry and Rabbit Building

The Poultry and Rabbit Building, built in 1909 with an annex added in 1920, is a spacious venue designed specifically for rabbit and poultry shows. Located just south of the Agriculture Building, it features a durable concrete floor and ample cages to accommodate large numbers of exhibits. Its generous layout provides plenty of room for exhibitors and spectators, making it an ideal setting for small animal competitions and related events.

Building Features

- Facility Description: Brick exhibit building
- Building Availability: April–October, weather permitting
- Electrical: 110v
- Square Footage: 12,800
- Restrooms: Yes
- Offices: One
- Storage Room: Yes
- Night Lighting: Yes
- Pens: Wire cages
- Floor Type: Concrete
- Other: Display case

Prices are subject to change without notice. For accessibility details, visit <https://mostatefairgrounds.com/plan-event/accessibility/>.