
Varied Industries Building

The Varied Industries Building, constructed in 1903 for $23,794, was one of the first permanent brick structures on the Missouri State Fairgrounds. Featuring an open floor plan similar to the Commercial Building, it provides a flexible space well suited for a variety of events. Popular bookings include spring and fall craft shows, conventions, seminars, and other community gatherings that benefit from its spacious, adaptable layout.

Building Features

- Facility Description: Historic brick exhibit hall
- Availability: April–October, weather permitting
- Electrical: 110v
- Square Footage: 10,549
- Length (ft): 137'
- Width (ft): 77'
- Restrooms: Yes
- Air Conditioning: Yes
- Heat: No
- Offices: One
- Storage Room: Yes
- Overhead Doors: Yes
- Seating Capacity: 500, banquet
- Night Lighting: Yes

Prices are subject to change without notice. For accessibility details, visit <https://mostatefairgrounds.com/plan-event/accessibility/>.

Varied Industries Building

